March 24, 2023

In response to Appellants Donald J. Trump, American Conservative Union, Rafael Barbosa, Linda Cuadros, Dominick Latella, and Wayne Allyn Root's motion seeking to extend their deadline to file a response to Twitter's suggestion of mootness, this Court extended the deadline for "any responses to the suggestion of mootness" until May 5, 2023. Dkt. 75. On March 24, 2023, Appellant Naomi Wolf filed an individual response to Twitter's suggestion of mootness. Dkt. 78. Under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 27(a)(4), Twitter has seven days to file a reply to Wolf's response. However, Twitter's arguments regarding the mootness of Wolf's First Amendment claim are virtually identical to its arguments regarding the other Appellants with reinstated accounts. Twitter accordingly moves for permission to file a single reply brief in support of its suggestion of mootness fourteen days after service of Appellants' final response. All Appellants consent to this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Ari Holtzblatt
